In the early 1990s, the writer, artist, and political organizer Luis Rodriguez is inspired to write a memoir about his early life in Los Angeles after he learns that his son, Ramiro, is getting involved in "La Vida Loca," as he calls it—the life of a cholo or gang affiliate. Luis spends the first two years of his life in Juarez, Mexico.

Always Running by Luis J. Rodriguez Plot Summary | LitCharts

Depression is rampant among gang members, and it's not hard to understand why. Luis is surrounded by danger, and because of the strict machismo culture of La Vida Loca, he's not allowed to show any weakness. Frightened and lonely, he first tries to suppress his feelings with drugs, and then tries to take out his feelings on his own body.
