Caged In Winter 1 Brighton

Brighton Walsh already impressed me with her holiday novella, Season of Second Chances, but she blew me away with Caged in Winter. There are some books you just connect with, and this is one of them. The writing is raw and realistic, the characters captivating, and I couldn't stop swooning over this beautiful love story.

Thanks to Brighton's proximity to the sea, January in the city is slightly warmer than in London and other cities around the country. However, it's the middle of winter in the city and temperatures can still drop as low as freezing. Rain is a common sight in January and snow can occasionally fall too.
