Not so typical however is one steamy bear shifter billionaire in the role of prince charming, a manipulative mama bear and a loveable curvy human with a penchant for talking with geese. The talking with geese was rather Disneyesque but the rest of the story was far from it. These shifters are definitely not Disney sweet characters.

By Kerry Adrienne, author of WAKING THE BEAR. Bear shifters are becoming more common and that makes me happy. I love bear shifters—to me, they are sexy and a bit mysterious. And very, very alpha male. For a while, most shifter stories were about wolves—which is fine to me because I love wolf shifters, too.

I have never read a shifter/fated mates book that involved a child before and Elena Aitken has set the bar high for all others. This book had just the right amount of hot and sexy and heart warming sweetness. The fierceness that Zoe showed for her new fated son was truly like a mama bear, but the chemistry with Gabe was hot.
