Swing Low A Life Miriam Toews - laplume.info

For what? Well, for one thing, Miriam writes, she was intent on erasing that bleak phrase of her father's, wanted to prove to herself, at least, just how much Mel did accomplish in his life. All of which is to say - in case you hadn't quite worked it out - that Swing Low is an acutely personal document. It doesn't matter that it's as much a work of imagination as any novel - coming out of the prologue, the simple act of turning the pages feels like a rudeness, an intrusion.
