The Riverman jumped out of the lot at me. The subtitle killed any doubts left "Ted Bundy and I hunt for the Green River Killer". This sounded like one of those Japanese monster vs monster premises. Moreover, at a point of time, Ted Bundy used to be my "favorite" serial killer. How could I resist? It was a red herring though.

Another thing, the title is deceptive, this book is not about the riverman but about what ted bundy said about Gary Ridgeway's crimes. Its about supercops who solved and arrested ted bundy, Ridgeway and other serial killers. I really did not enjoy this book as I did Ann Rule's trie crime novels. Ted Bundy never hunted for the Green river killer.
